

2009 Oregon Local Climate Protection Workshop Thursday, January 22

Join Clackamas County, ICLEI-Local Governments for Sustainability, the Oregon Environmental Council and Oregon Solutions for lunch and a discussion of successful local government climate protection activities and the climate and energy agenda for the 2009 legislative session.

When: Thursday, January 22, 12 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Where: Development Services Building – Room 119-120, Clackamas Red Soils Campus, 150 Beaver Creek Road, Oregon City.

Registration is required and the attendance fee is $25.00. Sign up by visiting: <http://www.oeconline.org/our-work/climate/2009-oregon-local-climate-protection-workshop>

---

AGENDA

12:00 – 1:00 Lunch and Keynote

Opening remarks – Clackamas County Commissioner Lynn Peterson

Keynote speaker – Oregon State Representative Ben Cannon

Workshop Introduction – Peter Murchie, Oregon Solutions

1:00 – 2:30 Panel Discussion - Local Climate Policy that Works – Three cities and counties present best practices for implementation that have been successful in their communities and provide opportunities for replication in others.

*Moderator: Felicity Fahy, City of Eugene
Michael Armstrong, City of Portland
Mike Piper, City of Vancouver*

2:30 – 2:45 Break

2:45 – 4:15 Panel Discussion – Upcoming State Climate Policy – What's on the table in Oregon and how your community can help shape new climate legislation in 2009

Moderator: Kat West, Multnomah County

Sallie Schullinger-Krause, Oregon Environmental Council – An overview of the 2009 Legislative Climate Agenda: New measures for greenhouse gas emissions reduction, energy efficiency and renewable energy development, and sustainable transportation.

Clark Brockman, SERA Architects – Legislative proposals for energy efficiency: Strengthening Oregon's economy through smart investments in energy efficient homes, businesses and communities.

Bob Stacey, 1000 Friends of Oregon – Transportation and land use proposals: Providing resources and tools to help local governments meet the state's global warming goals through effective planning.

4:15 Summary – Take-away and next steps